

Friday the 2nd

6:30pm: FIRST FRIDAY FILM FUN. Come to the Charles Theatre, the 67-year-old Baltimore icon at 1711 North Charles Street (near the intersection with Lanvale Street), to choose and watch a distinctive film with other Mensans. Afterwards we'll go to a nearby restaurant or coffee shop and share our thoughts about what we just saw. Please tell the event coordinator if you plan to go.

7pm: FRIDAY NIGHT SALON IN BETHESDA. Enjoy stimulating conversation as well as the best in French country cuisine at La Madeleine Café, 7607 Old Georgetown Road (at the corner of Old Georgetown and Commerce Road, just one block from the Bethesda Metro stop on the red line). Park in La Madeleine's own parking lot; on the street; or in the renovated and inexpensive public garage on Woodmont Avenue. Our format: We begin with casual conversation and then segue into a question-and-answer period after about an hour. Each participant writes down a question he or she wants the whole group to address; this guarantees that people get to talk about something they're interested in, and that no one person monopolizes the entire conversation. Questions are submitted anonymously and then read aloud for group discussion. No pressure—just fun (and being on time is NOT a requirement). The salon host writes

We're at La Madeleine every Friday. Usually we're in the room behind the fireplace. If you get there before us, sit at one of the long tables and, as people come in, they'll join you. We usually have no more than about 15 people. Our conversations are fast-paced, ever-shifting, and intense! We laugh a lot, too. You really want to check this out!

For more information, contact the host. This event is wheelchair-accessible. {MWM}

7:30pm: MEETING OF THE MINDS. Join Mensans from a variety of generations and backgrounds and discuss any topic that might interest you. Occasionally we yield questioning power to The Holder of the Green Marble, but usually there are several conversations going on at once, which nearly always means something for everyone. Because the patio at our longtime meeting spot, Boeymonger in Chevy Chase, was replaced by a frozen yogurt bar, the restaurant no longer has the space to support us comfortably. We'll be trying out some other places instead in the next few months in search of a new suitable spot—please come and be part of the selection process. For October, we may be changing our location but we're leaving the name of the restaurant untouched: We'll be at Boeymonger in Bethesda, at 4600 East West Highway (301-718-9550, www.boeymonger.com; near the Bethesda Metro stop on the red line). For more details, contact one of the event coordinators. {MWM}

Saturday the 3rd

4–10pm: GEN Y GAMES DAY! Come one, come all—particularly if you were born between 1976 and 1990—for a day of fun and games (or at the very least, games) in NW Washington, DC. We will break out old favorites like Clue and Connect Four along with new favorites like Cranium and even games that don't begin with 'C'. Bring your games, your friends, and yourself to experience the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat! RSVP to the event coordinator. Street parking is scarce, but venue is totally Metro accessible. See you there! {MWM}

5:30pm: IDEAS meets in Northwest Washington to investigate where your ideas come from and how they develop. Dinner with the group is optional but you may not join the discussion once it's started. Introverts and new thinkers welcome. If you enjoy exploring the intellectual realm, this is for you. Reservations required: seating is limited to eight. Dinner in DC and discussion at the host's home. No smoking. For reservations, contact the host. {MWM}

Sunday the 4th

6pm: FIRST SUNDAY DINING. Join the event coordinators in exploring a different style of restaurant each month. For October, we go European at Belga Café, 514 8th Street SE (between E and G Streets SE), in Washington, DC. According to Belga's website (www.belgacafe.com), the cafe is Washington's "original Belgian restaurant . . . and a great place for authentic Belgian [and Euro-fusion cuisine]. Combining an intriguing atmosphere with excellent, light & healthy interesting food . . . Belga Cafe is a little bit of Brussels on the Hill, with an open kitchen and sidewalk cafe." Entrées range from $11 to $30; street parking, Metro accessible (Eastern Market stop on the blue and orange lines). If interested, contact one of the event coordinators. {MWM}

Monday the 5th

Noon: SUITLAND LUNCH BUNCH. Contact the event coordinator to learn the location in or near Suitland. {MWM}

Tuesday the 6th

6pm: VICIOUS RUMOR SIG. The event coordinator invites all to share pizza, sodas, beer, and the check at Joe's Pizza and Pasta, 5555 Lee Highway in Arlington, VA. Order off the menu, or partake of the full buffet.

No RSVP required—feel free to just show up. IF, HOWEVER, no responses are received by the day before the event, the host may not be present; and the event may not take place. {MWM}

Wednesday the 7th

6:30–10pm: POTOMAC GAMES NIGHT is for players of all persuasions. From Rockville Pike (MD-355) or I-270, take Montrose Road west to Falls Road, turn left, and go 1.4 miles to 11315 Falls Road and the Potomac Community Center (240-777-6960). Ask for ‘Board Games’ at the front desk. A $2 donation helps pay for the room. Non-Mensans are also welcome. Contact Perry Farrar (301-869-8316) with any questions. {MWM}

Thursday the 8th

6:30pm: HARBORD COUNTY CAMARADERIE. Link up with Northern Maryland’s Mensans for dinner and friendly, thought-provoking conversation at the Grand Buffet in the Festival at Bel Air shopping center, Bel Air, MD 21015 (5 Bel Air South Parkway; 443-512-8600). The menu features oriental and other foods, all at reasonable prices. Just as in Frederick, no reservation needed: simply ask for Mensa—the manager and natives are friendly. Directions from I-95: take exit 77 onto MD Route 24 north. There is a traffic light one-tenth of a mile north of I-95 at MD-24’s intersection with Emmorton Road; continue north on 24 for 2.6 miles past the traffic light, and then turn right onto Bel Air South Parkway. Turn right off Bel Air South into the Festival shopping center (250 feet), and continue straight on the shopping center drive until you reach a stop sign. Turn right at the stop sign, and you’ll find the restaurant in the middle of the row of shops on the right. Please contact the event coordinator for more information.

7:30pm: SOUTH MOUNTAIN PIZZA. Join Mensans from western Maryland and West Virginia, or ones who wish they were, at the Pizza Hut on U.S. Route 40 on the west side of Frederick (1220 West Patrick Street; 301-695-0100). No reservation needed: just ask for Mensa—the manager and natives are friendly. We’re usually in the party room in the back, and we usually order pizzas to share from the menu. Cost for the evening will be in the $10 range. For directions and answers to Mensa-at-Pizza Hut questions, please contact one of the event coordinators.

Friday the 9th

5pm: OCEAN CITY GET-TOGETHER. Join Eastern Shore Mensans for lively conversation and drinks and/or food at one of Ocean City’s most popular spots: Seacrets, at 49th Street bayside (<http://seacrets.com/>, 410-524-4900). Seacrets is a huge place, so just tell the hostess you’re with Mensa and you’ll be directed to us. For more information contact the event coordinator.

6:30pm: DINNER AND CONVERSATION. Another event for Mensans and friends beyond the DC Beltway in Virginia. The event coordinator is hosting an evening of conversation and nice, casual dining at Pacino’s in Centreville (www.pacinooristorante.com). If you can come, please send an e-mail because we need a head count by Thursday the 8th. {MWM}

7pm: FRIDAY NIGHT SALON IN BETHESDA. See first Friday entry for details. {MWM}

7pm: RETURN OF THE DC HAPPY HOUR! The Friday Night Happy Hour is back. We will again meet at Zorba’s Café, 1612 20th Street NW, just north of Dupont Circle (www.zorbascafe.com/New_Site/). Zorba’s was rated as the best Greek restaurant in the DC area by the City Paper. Parking is a bit difficult, but Metro (Dupont Circle stop on the red line) is less than a block away. We’ll stay late, so drop by for a gyro or taramosalata. Contact the event coordinator for more information. {MWM}

Saturday the 10th

10am: BLAZING, LIGHTLY ARMED MENSANS (BLAMS) GO SHOOTING at the state-of-the-art indoor target range in the NRA Headquarters Building at 11250 Waples Mill Road in Fairfax, VA (just off I-66 at U.S. Route 50; 703-267-1400; www.nrahq.org/shootingrange/nrahqrange). Women, men, novices, first-timers, liberals, conservatives, young, old, and experienced shooters attend this event. We usually have five to 20 Mensans, family members, guests, and groupies at this second-Saturday-of-every-month event—for many, it’s their only Mensa activity. Gun ownership is not required, nor is NRA membership. Bring your non-Mensa friends and family—and your kids! N00bies, plan to arrive 30 minutes early for a required safety orientation and to get your range card. Saturday afternoons at the NRA HQ Range are rated low to medium testosterone. You can expect range time with a variety of shared rifles and pistols. The range staff is friendly, professional, and knows us well, so tell them you’re with Mensa when you check in. Wheelchair-accessible. RSVP REQUIRED. Please respond early, in fact, because the burgeoning popularity of this event has compelled its coordinator to temporarily restrict attendance of first-time shooters and those without guns. Attendance of gun owners and experienced shooters will remain unrestricted. Late lunch afterward to shoot the manure at a local restaurant. For reservations or more information, contact Adam Beslove at 703-929-7909. {MWM}

11am: GIFTED KIDS GO TO THE FARM. The fall harvest season is upon us, and the Gifted Kids Group is heading to the farm to celebrate! Join other gifted kids and their families for a fun-filled day out at Cox Farms (www.coxfarms.com). With giant slides, hay rides, farm animals, cornfield adventures, and a pumpkin patch, Cox Farms is fun for the whole family—there's even a brand new "Kiddie Zone" for those 5 and under. We will gather at the Windmill Meeting Point near admissions at 11 am, and head into the 90-acre farm together. If you can't make it 'til later, that's fine too; if you tell us you're coming, we'll make sure to find you. Cox Farm is located at 15621 Braddock Road in Centreville, VA. Hope to see you there—RSVPs preferred so we know who to expect. Contact MWM's Gifted Children Coordinator with any questions. {MWM}

1pm: CHEAP SHOWS. Meet the event coordinators for a movie at a Metro-accessible theater, followed by late lunch. Call on Friday night or Saturday morning to learn the name and location of the show. {MWM}

2pm: PARAPSYCHOLOGY SIG. Phone the host or use your ESP to reserve by Thursday the 8th. {MWM}

Sunday the 11th

11am: COLUMBIA SUNDAY BRUNCH. Enjoy brunch with Mensans in the Holiday Inn Columbia (7900 Washington Boulevard [U.S. Route 1 at its intersection with MD Route 175] in Jessup). The hotel's restaurant offers a brunch buffet with made-to-order omelets and waffles; $14 covers buffet, beverages, tax, and tip. Please contact one of the event coordinators for more information or directions; or just meet them in the hotel lobby at 11.

11am: NORTHERN VIRGINIA BRUNCH at the Foxfire Grill, 6550 Little River Turnpike (entrance on Braddock Road) in Alexandria. RSVP by 10:30am today, Sunday the 11th, to Rose the event coordinator. {MWM}

Tuesday the 13th

6:30–8pm: WORLD AFFAIRS DISCUSSION GROUP. Have you traveled overseas, or would you like to? Were you born in another country, or do you know people who were? Or do you just like to read a lot? If you would like to tell us what you know or simply listen to others, meet your kindred spirits for brisk discussions over good, affordable Indian food in the Delhi Club restaurant, at 1135 North Highland Street in Clarendon, VA. The Delhi Club is across the street from the Clarendon Metro station—in fact, you can see it from the front door of the station. Call the event coordinator if you have any questions. {MWM}

Wednesday the 14th

Noon: ROCKVILLE LUNCH BUNCH meets at El Mariachi Restaurant, 765-D Rockville Pike (301-770-5020; behind the IHOP in the Ritchie Center). Please call the event coordinator by close of business on Tuesday the 13th to reserve your place. {MWM}

6:30–10pm: POTOMAC GAMES NIGHT. See entry for first Wednesday. Theme: Youth. {MWM}

6:30pm: ANNAPOLIS GOURMANDS. Tie up with Mensa's Annapolis Convolution at Deep Creek Restaurant and Marina, 1050 Deep Creek Avenue in Arnold, on (yep) Deep Creek just off the southern shore of the Magothy River (www.deepcreekrestaurantandmarina.com, 410-974-1408). If you've never been there, you're in for a serious treat: Deep Creek Restaurant has a varied and interesting menu, a first-rate kitchen, and attentive service. All in all, it's sure to exceed your expectations—unless, that is, you've been there before. Please plan to join us, and then make your reservation without fail with the event coordinator by Saturday the 10th.

7:30pm: CHINESE RESTAURANT ODYSSEY. To learn the location and reserve your place (required), call one of the event coordinators by Monday the 12th. {MWM}

Friday the 16th

6:30pm: ZORBA'S AND AIR QUALITY. Catch an on-street parking spot as they open up at 6:30, then come to Zorba's Café for an early dinner (1612 20th Street in NW DC, just north of Dupont Circle; menu at www.zorbascfe.com). At 7:55, join our growing entourage as we walk about 1-1/2 blocks to the Cosmos Club, 2170 Florida Avenue, for the free, 8:15 meeting of the Washington Philosophical Society (light refreshments afterwards). Tonight we'll hear Air Quality in the Anthropocene Era, a Satellite Perspective by Pawan K. Bhartia, Senior Research Scientist at NASA Goddard Space Flight Center (the quality of our life-sustaining atmosphere is changing rapidly). Talk abstract and speaker credentials are at www.philsoc.org. For further information, please contact the event coordinator. {MWM}

6:45pm: MARYLAND MENSA EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING. MM's governing body meets at the Stillmeadow Church (5110 Frederick Road in Baltimore). All Maryland Mensans are welcome to attend. Please contact Recording Secretary Royall Whitaker prior to the meeting if you wish to place an item on the agenda. Names and contact information for ExComm members are listed on page 2 of M-Anation and at www.maryland.us.mensa.org/contacts.htm.

7pm: FRIDAY NIGHT SALON IN BETHESDA. See first Friday entry for details. {MWM}

7:30pm: MARYLAND MENSA'S MONTHLY MEETING convenes on the south side of Baltimore in the Stillmeadow Church, 1.2 miles inside the beltway at 5110 Frederick Road (MD 144; exit 13 east off I-695, toward Irvington—the church is on the left-hand side). Admission and light refreshments are $4 for Mensans, $5 for guests and prospective members of Mensa (walk-ins welcome). October's speaker will be Metropolitan Washington Mensan Sheryl Gordon, who'll talk with us about linguistics. Sheryl is a world-class resource on the stuff: You'll find her enthusiasm and deep-seated knowledge not only elevating and insightful, but truly a treat to experience and interact with. For more information on Maryland Mensa's monthly meetings in general, contact Maryland Second Vice President (Programs) Casey Costley at caseyc721@yahoo.com or 410-599-9619. If you send e-mail, please include 'Mensa' in the subject line.

7:30pm: MEETING OF THE MINDS. See first Friday entry for details. {MWM}

Saturday the 17th

1pm: MATURE MENSANS of any age, but particularly those already enjoying or eligible for retirement, are invited to join like-minded peers in comparing notes over lunch at Monaghan's Pub, 2121 Gwynn Oak Avenue in Woodlawn (410-944-3311; exit I-695 onto Security Boulevard east [inside Baltimore's beltway], continue on Security for about 1.5 miles, then turn left onto Gwynn Oak and proceed for seven-tenths of a mile—the pub and its parking lot are on the right-hand side of the street). Please come if you can—no reservations are required.

1pm-late evening: NORTHERN VIRGINIA BOARD GAMES is a monthly event that alternates between two homes in northern VA on the third Saturday of each month. Participants include Mensans and others. We mostly play board games such as Princes of Florence, Lowenherz, Settlers of Catan, Carcassonne, Puerto Rico, lots of other Euro-type games, RoboRally, a couple of "train games" of various lengths, and—occasionally—word games, family games, or party games. We generally have between eight and 15 people. It's a lot of affable quiet guys, a few women, and sometimes a couple of older kids who like games. We split into groups as the number grows, sorting ourselves by what people want to play. NoVA Board Gamers are not fiercely competitive, will teach you games, and will help you out when it's your turn if you wish. We often discuss strategy during play, which sometimes leads to people pointing out a better play to someone and even letting them start over if they wish. There is no charge for this group, and it's come and go as you please. You don't have to bring any snacks unless you want to; we usually order pizza around 6pm. If you think you might be interested, please contact the event coordinator. {MWM}

6pm: BRIDGE SIG. Come to the host's home in Northwest DC for friendly party bridge—bridge that's neither cutthroat nor beginning. New members are always welcome, and we'll happily find a partner for you if you need one. No smoking. The Bridge SIG donation is just $5 for delicious dinner refreshments (i.e., real food), and if anyone needs a ride from the nearest Metro stop, we'll try to arrange for it. For reservations and directions, contact your host. For any other questions about this group, contact the Bridge SIG coordinator. {MWM}

6pm: CORN MAZE. Can a bunch of Mensans find their way out of a giant corn maze? Come find out at Temple Hall Regional Farm Park in Leesburg, VA. All ages are welcome to explore the maze in the dark. You should bring a flashlight! The park's street address is 15789 Temple Hall Lane. Please contact the event coordinator if you want to join us. She'd like to have contact information in case she has to cancel due to inclement weather. Since this is a bit off the beaten track, let her know if you need a ride and she'll do her best to arrange carpooling. {MWM}

7pm: SIGSIG (SATURDAY/SUNDAY INDOOR GAMES SIG).

In the year 1492,
Columbus sailed the ocean blue.
Now we are in the year 2009,
And surfing the net is how we spend time.
Would you rather have real, live people in view?
No need to fret; here's what you can do:
Come to our SIGSIG with our host (who's a fox),
And play many games that come in a box.
Join us in Westminster; you'll be glad that you came—

After one night of SIGSIG you won't be the same.

Come to the host's home in Westminster (about 30 miles northwest of Baltimore). Contact her for directions and to tell her you'll be there, bring your favorite games and snacks, and have some interactive fun!

8pm: GEN Y HALLOWEEN BONFIRE. Boo!!! Whether you love Halloween festivities or just like being outside on a nice Fall night, come join other Gen Y Mensans for a Halloween bonfire in Annapolis (the sign out front says "Central Sod Farms"). Costumes aren't required, but feel free to get into the spirit of Halloween if you'd like. Guests are welcome! For further information, directions or a ride, contact one of the event coordinators. Hope to see you there! {MWM}

Sunday the 18th

6pm: GOURMENSANS go to Café Assorti, 1800 Wilson Boulevard in Arlington, VA for European, Russian and Kazakh food. Reservations strongly recommended. New and prospective members, family members, and other visitors are always welcome to attend. For reservations, directions, or other information please contact one of the event coordinators. The restaurant is wheelchair-accessible. {MWM}

Monday the 19th

7:30pm: INVESTMENT & SPECULATION SIG. If you're so smart, how come you aren't rich? Bring a $1 contribution to the host's house in Reston, VA to learn how you can be both. Call for directions. {MWM}

Wednesday the 21st

6:30pm: SCIENCE SIG. Meet the event coordinator in the food court of the Ballston Common Mall, at the corner of Glebe Road and Wilson Boulevard (two blocks from the orange line's Ballston-MU stop) in Arlington, VA for dinner and discussion of breaking science news and issues. {MWM}

6:30–10pm: POTOMAC GAMES NIGHT. See entry for first Wednesday. {MWM}

Friday the 23rd

7pm: FRIDAY NIGHT SALON IN BETHESDA. See first Friday entry for details. {MWM}

Saturday the 24th

12:30pm: GIFTED KIDS GO TO THE PLANETARIUM. It's that time again! Did you know that the planetarium in the Rock Creek Park Nature Center (www.nps.gov/rocr/index.htm) is the only one in the National Parks System? Here is your chance to experience the planetarium's 1pm presentation on The Night Sky with other gifted kids and their families. The show is for beginning astronomers and focuses on identifying constellations; it is recommended for ages 5 and up. We will meet a half-hour before the show starts at the entrance to the Nature Center, at 5200 Glover Road (off Military Road) in NW Washington, DC. RSVPs are not necessary, but would be helpful in making sure we can get enough tickets for all participants. If you'd like additional information, contact MWM's Gifted Children Coordinator. Can't wait to see you! {MWM}

3:30–6pm: LGBTQ MEETING. You are invited to join the LGBTQ SIG—a special interest group for adult lesbian, gay, bi-, and transgender MWM members and other LGBTQ-friendly adults. Join us for cocktails, coffee, or soft drinks at the Tabard Inn, 1739 N Street NW in Washington, DC (www.tabardinn.com). The Tabard is a 90-year-old B&B right in the heart of the District, just two blocks south of the Dupont Circle stop on Metro's red line (take the 19th Street exit). Though the hotel boasts an expensive restaurant, the cocktail lounge is relaxed and reasonably priced. Reservations are not required and dress is casual. To facilitate finding other Mensans, we suggest you carry a copy of Cap-M (Metropolitan Washington Mensa's large-format newsletter) or the Mensa Bulletin—discreetly, of course. We're looking forward to another great time this month. The success of LGBTQ SIG depends on you! Pending election of a SIG coordinator, please contact MWM's LocSec or Programs Officer if you'd like additional information. {MWM}

7pm: LISTENERS OF CLASSICAL MUSIC. Join LCM for quiet conversation, a friendly atmosphere, shared snacks, and classical music. This month's theme is Music Related to Liquids. Bring records or CDs to share. BYOB; no donation, but you may wish to bring a few dollars for optional pizza. LCM is located in Falls Church, VA near the intersection of U.S. Route 50 and the Washington beltway. Contact the event coordinator for directions or information. {MWM}

Sunday the 25th

1–5pm: CHRYSALIS VINEYARDS WINE TASTING AND POTLUCK PICNIC. The event coordinator is hosting an afternoon of wine tasting at Chrysalis Vineyards in Middleburg, VA followed by an afternoon pot-luck. The vineyards and winery are located at 23876 Champe Ford Road (540-687-8222, www.chrysaliswine.com). Wine tasting will start at 1:15pm and last approximately an hour. There is an Estate tasting for $5, which includes seven light-to-medium wines; or, alternatively, there is a Reserve tasting for $10, which includes 12 wines (the seven from the Estate tasting plus five full-bodied reds). The glass comes with the tasting and becomes an excellent souvenir. There is a pavilion with picnic benches and a grill where we can set up a potluck picnic. Because children are not permitted in the tasting tents, Kate suggests keeping this as an adults-only activity. You may e-mail the event coordinator with questions. Please RSVP by Thursday the 22nd, as there is a limit to the size of the group the vineyard can accommodate—we'll let you know immediately if we reach the cut-off point. {MWM}

Wednesday the 28th

5:30–9pm: GEN X HAPPY HOUR. Get together with other Gen X-ers to socialize, chat, and have fun at Epicurean and Company, 4250 Connecticut Avenue NW in Washington, DC (located between north Van Ness Street and north Veazey Terrace; Van Ness/UDC Metro Station on the red line; 202-237-7711). Help yourself to the extensive and delicious buffet, full service drinks bar, and excellent sushi bar; and then grab a chair at the GenX table and schmooze with other Mensans and guests born between 1960 and 1980. Stop by for a bite after work and plan to stay for the live jazz set. Please contact the event coordinator for more information. {MWM}

Friday the 30th

6:30pm: ZORBA'S AND THERMOELECTRICS. Catch an on-street parking spot as they open up at 6:30, then come to Zorba's Café for an early dinner (1612 20th Street in NW DC, just north of Dupont Circle; menu at www.zorbascfe.com). At 7:55, join our growing entourage as we walk about 1-1/2 blocks to the Cosmos Club, 2170 Florida Avenue, for the free, 8:15 meeting of the Washington Philosophical Society (light refreshments afterwards). Tonight we'll hear Thermoelectrics for Vehicles (convert engine waste heat directly to electricity) by John Fairbanks, of the U.S. Department of Energy. Talk abstract and speaker credentials are at www.philsoc.org. For further information, please contact the event coordinator. {MWM}

7pm: FRIDAY NIGHT SALON IN BETHESDA. See first Friday entry for details. {MWM}

7:30pm: MEETING OF THE MINDS. See entry for first Friday. {MWM}
